Hi Kent,

Just when you thought you'd heard the last from me, I am writing because it is likely that we will be moving forward with motions against certain entities. So, of course, with respect to any motion against MF Corporate Services (Nevada) Limited, I will meet and confer with you. Do you have a contact person or persons for the other various entities with whom I could speak to in order to meet and confer before filing any motion(s)?

As always, please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Thanks,

Nikki

Hi Kent,

Sorry for the delayed response. We've been swamped on another case, and then I went out of town last week for Thanksgiving. I will contact you before we file any motion(s). I don't anticipate that anything will be filed this week.

In the meantime, if you have any questions, please let me know.

Nikki,

By now you should have the signed confidentiality agreement and the discs containing the confidential documents. I hope that these will resolve at least some of your outstanding concerns. Though since MF produced a fair amount of documents with respect to its subpoena, I hope there will not be continuing disputes involving MF. Obviously, since I represent MF, we can meet and confer on any outstanding discovery issues that you may have. I would hope that we would discuss production issues before any motion to compel would be filed against MF.

With respect to the other entities, I have reached out to my contact to see how they would like to proceed. I am dealing with an intermediary, however, which complicates matters. In order to smooth this process, it might be helpful for me to have a list of the entities that you feel will be subject to the motion to compel. I feel confident that you will not want to proceed against all of the entities, since many have been dissolved, and others were not properly served, since MF is no longer their resident agent. In any event, with a little more direction about the subjects of your motions to compel, I can arrange with my contact either to be retained to represent them or to have their own counsel contact you. Either way, though, I think this process will probably take a little bit of time. We are, after all, dealing with foreign entities who are total strangers to the underlying case. I think it would be best if we—meaning you and I or you and the foreign entities' counsel, as the case demands—have an opportunity to meet and confer on production before proceeding with a motion to compel.

I look forward to receiving a little more information from you on these matters.

Best regards,
Kent

Not yet, Nikki. Things move slowly in Panama, where my contacts are, as you can see. It may help grease the wheels if I had some additional direction on what exactly you need. As I recall there were two questions in each of the relevant subpoenas: (1) payment records and (2) documents to be produced in response to other subpoenas about Lorenzo Baez (or somesuch spelling). I recall that many of the entities were defunct. Are there entities that you all are particularly interested in? Or are you wanting to move against all 150 entities?

Kent,

Thank you for the follow up email. As I mentioned during the call, NML is planning to file a motion to compel this Friday (the 28th) if we are unable to resolve all outstanding issues before then. I will, of course, call you to discuss any follow up questions I may have based on the information you provided about MF.

Nikki,

Thanks for speaking with me earlier today regarding MF Corporate Services and Aldyne. I should be able to speak with my contacts about Aldyne at some point today or early tomorrow and give you more information about their position. I will call you tomorrow once I hear something.

Regarding MF Corporate Services, my client has gone over her files once again to locate the documents you requested. I noted in our review a couple of issues: (1) the documents for Gulf Support Services LLC have already been produced. This was number 3456 in our production; (2) the entity you referenced as Ariona LLC is now called Galway Scott Trading Ltd, and the document related to that change was produced as number 3305 of our production.

For the other document requests, my client has gone over her files and has concluded that we have produced everything responsive to the request. We have not withheld any documents even subject to objections of privilege or the like. I believe these were resolved with the confidentiality agreement several months ago. MF Corporate Services is a commercial resident agent. In many cases these documents are organized by outside third parties in other countries, and certain documents are never sent to MF. This would explain why there are no operating agreements or membership lists for certain companies. I do not believe this is unusual in the industry.

Let me know if you have further questions or concerns.

Regards,
Kent

Thank you for taking the time this morning to discuss your client's response to my client, NML Capital, Ltd.'s ("NML"), subpoena. In particular, our review of MF Corporate Services (Nevada) Limited's ("MF") production has revealed that the following documents were encompassed in the subpoena, but not produced by MF:

- * Missing operating agreement, or part of operating agreement, for: 1) Permanel Investment Limited (Operating Agreement missing Exhibits A and B, which lists members and managers); 2) The Ingelec Group LLC (Operating Agreement missing Exhibit A, which lists member and capital contribution); and 3) Vaneggia Holdings Ltd.

* Missing any documents for: 1) Ariona Company LLC; and 2) Dilmond Enterprises Ltd.

After you have had the opportunity to discuss the above with your client, please call to discuss (or email me) MF's position.

Additionally, given the number of other entities that I would like to confer on, I inquired as to whom I could speak to with Aldyne Ltd., the former or current manager of most of the subpoenaed entities. After you have had the opportunity to discuss this with your contact person(s) for the entities, please let me know whether you or someone else can speak on behalf of Aldyne Ltd.

Nikki,

I didn't see a response to my last email, so I'm not sure where you are on filing. But I have some information/explanation for Aldyne that I can share if you want to chat. Give me a call when you can.

Thanks,
Kent

Kent,

Thank you for the follow up email. As I mentioned during the call, NML is planning to file a motion to compel this Friday (the 28th) if we are unable to resolve all outstanding issues before then. I will, of course, call you to discuss any follow up questions I may have based on the information you provided about MF.

Thanks,

Nikki

Nikki,

Thanks for speaking with me earlier today regarding MF Corporate Services and Aldyne. I should be able to speak with my contacts about Aldyne at some point today or early tomorrow and give you more information about their position. I will call you tomorrow once I hear something.

Regarding MF Corporate Services, my client has gone over her files once again to locate the documents you requested. I noted in our review a couple of issues: (1) the documents for Gulf Support Services LLC have already been produced. This was number 3456 in our production; (2) the entity you referenced as Ariona LLC is now called Galway Scott Trading Ltd, and the document related to that change was produced as number 3305 of our production.

For the other document requests, my client has gone over her files and has concluded that we have produced everything responsive to the request. We have not withheld any documents even subject to objections of privilege or the like. I believe these were resolved with the confidentiality agreement several months ago. MF Corporate Services is a commercial resident agent. In many cases these documents are organized by outside third parties in other countries, and certain documents are never sent to MF. This would explain why there are no operating agreements or membership lists for certain companies. I do not believe this is unusual in the industry.

Let me know if you have further questions or concerns.

Regards,
Kent

* Missing membership certificate for: 1) Rochester International Holdings LLC.

* Missing any documents for: 1) Ariona Company LLC; and 2) Dilmond Enterprises Ltd.

After you have had the opportunity to discuss the above with your client, please call to discuss (or email me) MF's position.
